My host family is very funny and kind. She told me how to cook homely cooking at home. I'm so happy. I want to study English and I want to talk more with my host mother. My host brother is very tall, so I felt scared first, but he is very kind. I talk to him every day. I feel so fine.

Hayate KURAHASHI

One week has passed since I arrived in NZ. At first I was nervous and I had a fever. But now, I'm very enjoyable and relaxed. My host family is very kind for me. I think I can talk a lot with my host mother. Next week I want to make lunch. So, I will buy something and bring it. I'm enjoying NZ life very much.

Taiki SUZUKI

I have been gotten used to the life in New Zealand. Now I go to school and come back by myself. In the morning it is so cold. Also our classes started. I'm having really fun. I'm sure if I do my best at the class my English level will be high. So I'll will do my best and enjoy myself!

Kotaro MATSUMURA

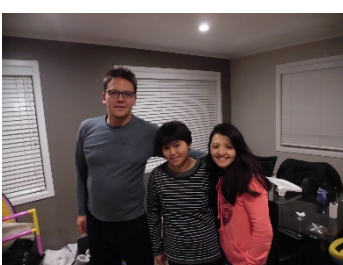

I spent one week to do homestay in NZ. My host family is very nice and very kind. I like to talk to the children. School is very interesting. I like the lessons. I had not experienced the interesting lesson like that. It is hard to take off the bus. I almost got lost. They don't call the bus stop name in the bus. I want to enjoy the homestay and school more.

Taisei YAMAGUCHI

I am getting used to studying abroad, and I can talk with my host family. I am going to school with Seiji. But I got in the wrong bus and got lost. Now that I can listen to and speak English, I would like to speak more English before leaving here three weeks later. And I will be careful not to get lost again.

Ayumi UDO

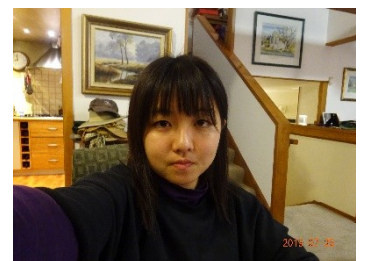

Hello. After we came to New Zealand, one week went through. I feel so fast. I'm a little sad. Because I can't talk and meet my family in Japan. But I'm very happy. Because I could meet a very good host family. I have many days in New Zealand. I'll learn many things. Please wait for me. I grew up more than before through this study abroad.

Rina NAKAJIMA

One week has passed since I left home. I was so nervous when I met my host family, and I couldn't listen to their English very much. So, on the first day, I got lost on my way home, but the bus driver was kind enough to teach me the way to the nearest bus stop from home. I won't get lost any more, and I'll do my best.

Maika NODA

Hello! I am in New Zealand. New Zealand's life is very very fantastic! But I have a homesickness. That reason is I can't talk with my family. I am very lonely. But, one week is very short. I thought one week would be very long. So one month will be unexpectedly short. I want to return to Japan early. But I will do my best!
