My host family is so good. I'm having a very fun time because I talk with my host family every day. I want to stay more. I help my host family make dinner. I can learn English and cooking. I'm so happy. My host family is so kind. When I'm troubled, they always help me. I'm lucky in this homestay. I want to speak English more.

Hayate KURAHASHI

My host family is very kind. My host family's names are Marian and Paul. When I come home, Marian said "Do you want some snacks?" Of course I say YES. For example, popcorn and potato chips. During meals, I talk with Marian about school. During dinner, I talk with my host family a lot. So, I'm so enjoying my homestay life.

Taiki SUZUKI

I am having so fun in New Zealand. One of the biggest reasons is my host family. In my host family there is a mother from Russia and a host mate which is from Brazil. I always talk with them. IT is hard to think that I can stay just two more weeks. But I will make a lot of memories with my host family.

Kotaro MATSUMURA

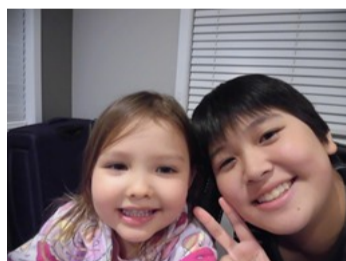

My host family is very good and very kind. I like my host family. My host brother and sister are very cute. My host mother is very kind and a very good cook. Her dinner is very delicious. My host father is handsome and a very good cook, too. But he usually comes home late. Please look forward to watching my next report.

Taisei YAMAGUCHI

My host family has four members. There are a mother, a dad, a brother and a sister. My dad leaves early in the morning and comes back late at night, so I can't meet him often. My mother is very kind and she talks very much and teaches me various things. My sister and brother love me. So I like my host family.

Ayumi UDO

I introduce my host family. My host family is 4. Mother and father and two kids. My host mother and father are very kind. They always make very delicious food. Two kids are very cute. One kid is 4, and the other kid is a baby. I always play with the kids. I am very happy because my host family is very good. Please look forward to seeing my next report.

Rina NAKAJIMA

My host family is so kind to me. They teach me polite responses, and sometimes let me watch New Zealand TV programs. And also my host parents cook very well, so I enjoy every meal. I appreciate them to guess what I want to say with my incomplete grammar and vocabulary. I'd like to communicate more with them more, and enjoy my homestay here.

Maika NODA

Hello! I am spending at my host family's house. I'm getting used to my homestay. I am very enjoying it now. But I don't sometimes understand what my host family say to me. That is a little sad thing. So I need to do my best. That is very difficult. But I never give up. I want to speak a lot of English in the near future.
